(Revised 1786)

1. My Redeemer, let me be quite happy at Thy feet, Still to know myself and Thee; Be this my bit - ter - sweet: Look up -

2. I have fool - ish - ly abused my Savior's bleeding love; All Thy gifts, my God, misused, When by temptation drove; Justly

3. Thy blest smiles, my gracious Lord, shall cheer my drooping heart; I'm instructed in Thy word That Thou unchanging art. Draw me

4. There, reclining on Thy breast, Th'e-ter-nal sabbath find; Proving in Thee perfect rest To my poor laboring mind. Waiting
