

William Kethe, 1560
Old Version Psalm 134

66. 86. (S. M.)

Southwell New

Transcribed from The Grounds and Rules of Musick, 1721.

G Major

Thomas Walter, 1721

Tr. 1. Be - hold, and have re-gard, Ye ser-vants of the Lord, Who in his house by night do watch; Praise him with one ac - cord.

T. 2. Lift up your hands on high, Un - to his ho - ly place. And give the Lord his prai - ses due, His ben - e - fits em - brace.

B. 3. For why? the Lord our God Who heav'n and earth did frame, Doth Zi - on bless, and will pre - serve For ev - er - more the same.

---

Published in 1721 without words; these words added, the usual words to
Southwell, which music appears on the same page.
Probably the first sacred music published in what is now the United States.