

AMNS 341 As the disciples, when thy Son had left them

Melody: Diva servatrix

Percy Dearmer
(1867-1936)

Melody from Bayeux Antiphoner, 1739

1. As the di - sci - ples, when thy Son had left them, met in a 2. As, when their con - verse closed and sup - per end - ed, ta - king the
3. And as they prayed and sang to thee re - joic - ing, ere in the love-feast, joy - ful - ly con - vers - ing, all the stored mem - 'ry bread and wine they made thanks - giv - ing, break - ing and bless - ing, night - fall they em-braced and part - ed, in their hearts sing - ing of the Lord's last sup - per fond - ly re - hears - ing; thus to have com - mu - nion with Christ the liv - ing;

as they jour - neyed home - ward, brave and true - heart - ed;

so may we here, who ga - ther now in friend - ship, seek for the so may we here, a com - pa - ny of bro - thers, make this our so may we here, like corn that once was scat - tered ov - er the spi - rit of those ear - lier Chur - ches, wel - com - ing him who love - feast and com - mem - or - a - tion, that in his Spi - rit hill - side, now one bread u - ni - ted, led by the Spi - rit, stands and for an en - trance pa - tient - ly search - es.

we may have more wor - thy par - ti - ci - pa - tion.
do thy work re - joic - ing, lamps filled and light - ed.