

Eldorado

Words by Edgar Allan Poe

Music traditional, arranged by Jon Corelis

$\text{♩} = 60$  Sweetly and mournfully

Voice

Harp

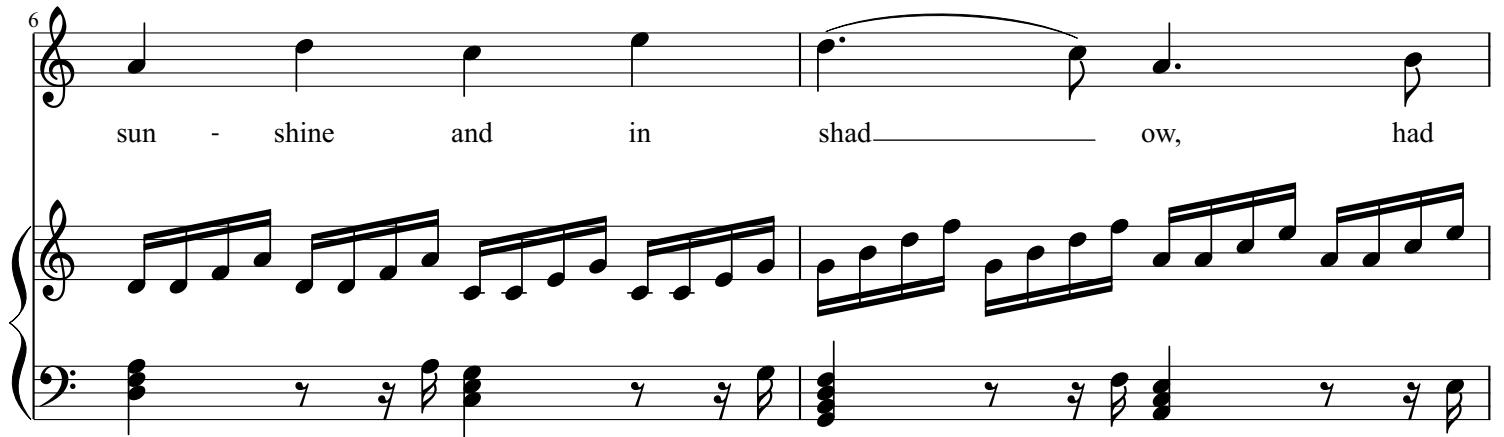

4

Gai - ly be - dight, a gal - lant knight, in 6

sun - shine and in shad - ow, had 8

jour - neyed long, sing — ing a song, in — search of — El - do — ra - do. But 14

10

he grew old, this knight so — bold, and 16

o'er his heart a shadow

18

fell as he found no spot of ground that 20

looked like Eldorado. And, 24

as his strength failed him at length, he 26

met a pilgrim shadow.

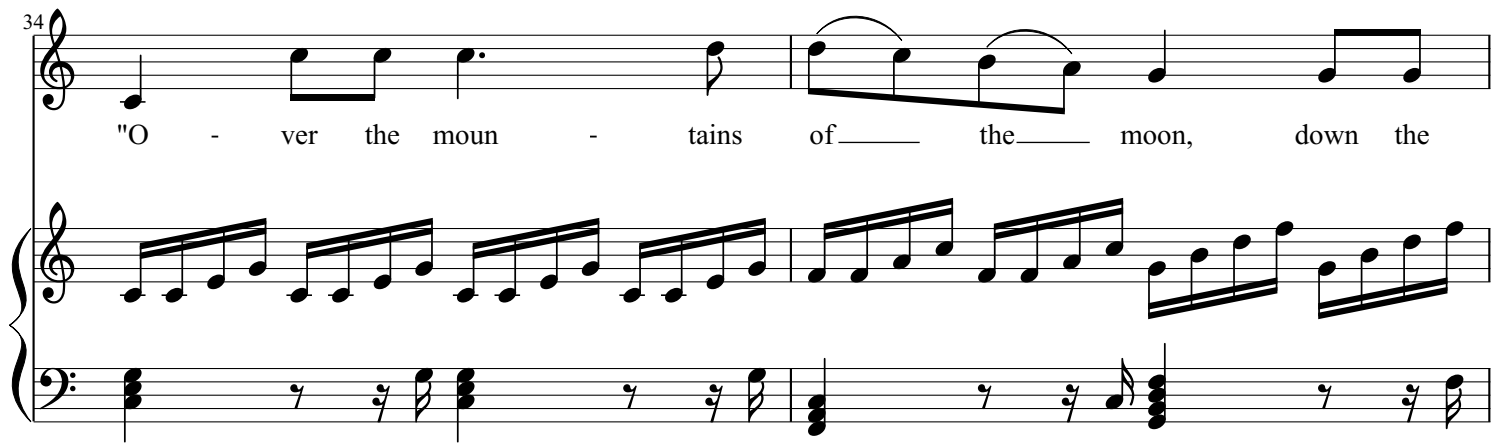

28

"Shadow," said he, "where can it be, this"

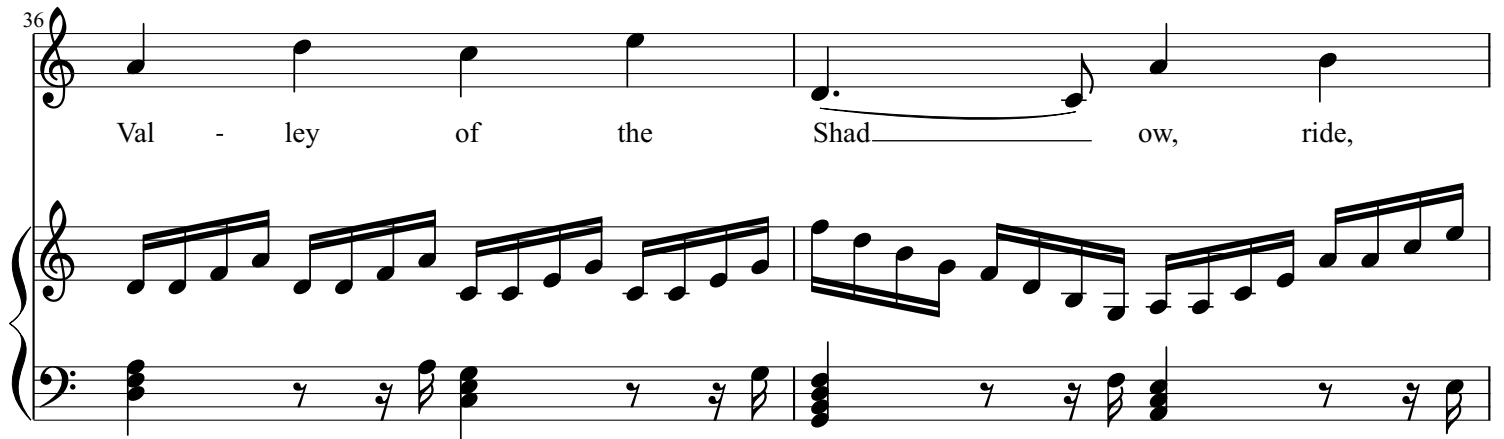

30
land of El - do - ra do?"

34
"O - ver the moun - tains of the moon, down the 36

Val - ley of the Shad - ow, ride,

38

bold - ly ride," the shade re plied, "if you

40

seek for El Do ra - do."