set his whole delight: And in the same doth exercise Himself both day and night.

2. He shall be like the tree that grows
Fast by the river side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
In her due time and tide.
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
But flourish still and stand:
E'en so all things shall prosper well
That this man takes in hand.

3. So shall not the ungodly man,
They shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
The winds drive to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked man
In judgement stand upright:
Not yet the sinners with the just,
Shall come in place or light.
