

They Are Waiting for our Petitions

Tune: Traditional Harm: WJ

Lento ♩=66

They are wai - ting for our pe - ti - tions si - lent and calm. Their For the souls thou hol - dest_ dear - est let prayers a - rise. The
For the souls by all for - got - ten, e - ven its own, By its Our lo - ving lips can_ cry a - loud the plea - ding word Through lips no prayer can_ ut - ter, nei - ther sup - pliant psalm. We have voice of love is_ migh - ty and will pierce the skies. Waste near - est and its_ dear - est, left all a - lone. Whi - all that si - lent_ king - dom un - known, un - heard. O made them all too wea - ry with_ long de - lay; For the not in sel - fish wee - ping one_ pre - cious day but sper a "De Pro - fun - dis", or_ gent - ly lay Alms canst thou turn from their bit - ter want cold - ly a - way Kneel souls in their still_ a - go - ny, good Chris - tian pray: Re - qui - speed thy love up to hea - ven, good Chris - tian pray:

in some beg - gar's_ out - stretched palm, good Chris - tian pray: hum - bly at the_ al - tar's foot, Chris - tian and pray:

e - scant in pa - ce, re - qui - e - scant in pa - ce.