 Lord, com - bine To praise thy glo - rious name, to praise thy glo - rious name.
 Judge and King, Shalt go - vern all the earth, shalt go - vern all the earth.

Let diff'ring nations join
 To celebrate thy fame;
 Let all the world, O Lord, combine
 To praise thy glorious name.

Then shall the teeming ground
 A large increase disclose;
 And we with plenty shall be crown'd,
 Which God, our God, bestows.

Then God upon our land
 Shall constant blessings show'r,
 And all the world in awe shall stand
 Of his resistless pow'r.

Notes:

The order of parts here is as given in the source. The topmost staff is printed in the alto clef in the source, and so is shown to be an alto part. The second staff is printed in the treble clef without indication of octave in the source: it has been treated as a tenor part in this edition, but could be doubled by sopranos an octave higher.

The text is indicated in the source by the heading 'Ps: 67th', and the first line as 'To bless thy Chosen race &c.'. The remainder of the text has been added.
