

Fair if you expect admiring

Thomas Campion
(1567-1620)

Soprano

1. Fair if you ex - pect ad - mir - ing, Sweet, if you pro - voke de - sir - ing,
2. Fates, if you rule lov - ers' for - tune, Stars, if men your powers im - por - tune,

Bass

S

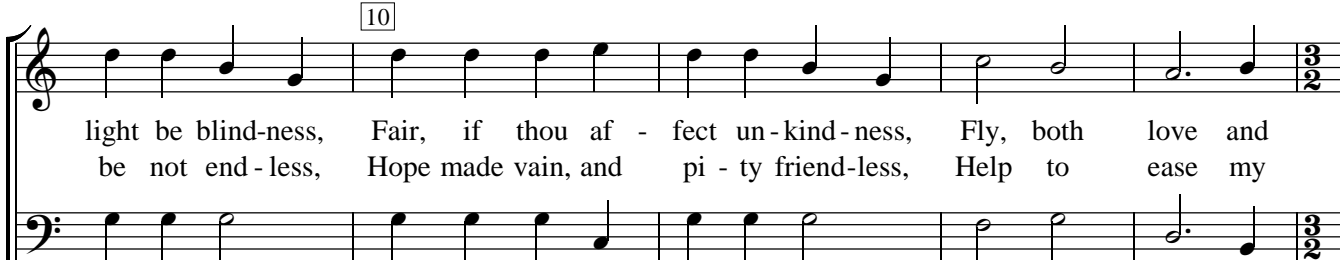

5

Grace dear love with kind re - quit - ing. Fond, but if thy Yield re - lief by your re - lent - ing. Time, if sor - row

B

S

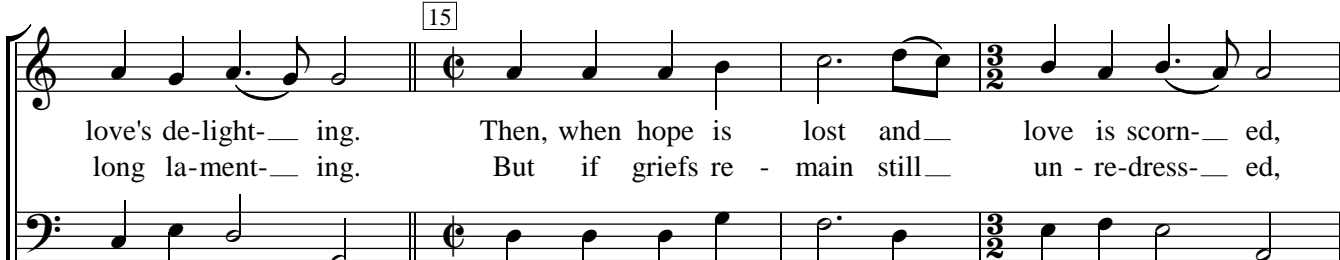

10

light be blind - ness, Fair, if thou af - fect un - kind - ness, Fly, both love and be not end - less, Hope made vain, and pi - ty friend - less, Help to ease my love's de - light - ing. Then, when hope is lost and love is scorn - ed, long la - ment - ing. But if griefs re - main still un - re - dress - ed,

B

S

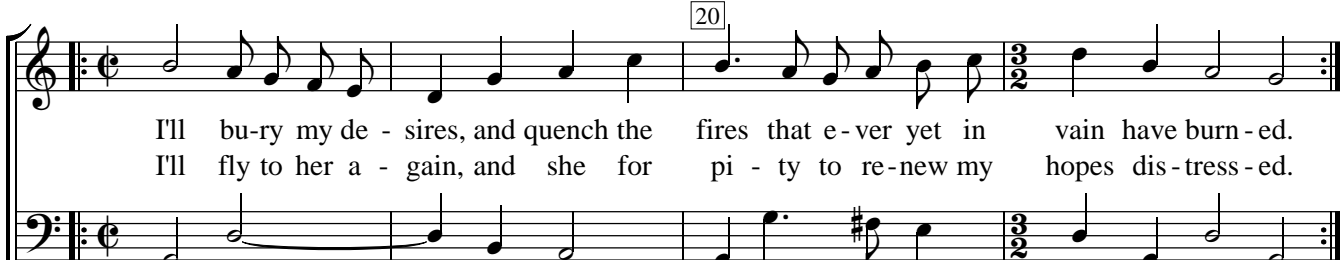

15

B

S

20

I'll bu - ry my de - sires, and quench the fires that e - ver yet in vain have burn - ed.
I'll fly to her a - gain, and she for pi - ty to re - new my hopes dis - tress - ed.

B