

Dissolution

Transcribed from The Musical Concert, 1802.

A minor

Elisha West, 1802

5

Tr. 1. Death may dis-solve my bo - dy now, And bear my spi - rit home; Why do my min - utes
 2. With hea-venly wea-pons I have fought The bat-tles of the Lord; Fin - ished the course, and
 3. Je - sus the Lord shall guard me safe From eve-ry ill de - sign; And to his hea - venly

C.

T. 1. Death may dis-solve my bo - dy now, And bear my spi - rit home; Why do my min - utes move kept so
 2. With hea-venly wea-pons I have fought The bat-tles of the Lord; Fin - ished the course, and kept the
 3. Je - sus the Lord shall guard me safe From eve-ry ill de - sign; And to his hea - venly king - dom

B.

10 15 1. 2.

Tr. move kept so slow, Why do my min - utes move so slow, Nor my sal - va - tion come?
 king - dom keep, And Fin - ished the course, and kept the faith, And wait the sure re - ward.
 mine.

C. 1. Why do my min - utes move so slow, My min - utes move so slow, Nor my sal - va - tion come?
 2. Fin - ished the course, and kept the faith, The course and kept the faith, And wait the sure re - ward.
 3. And to his hea - venly king - dom keep His hea - venly king - dom keep This fee - ble soul of mine.

T. slow, Why do my min - utes move so slow, Nor my sal - va - tion come, Nor my sal - va - tion come? Why faith, Fin - ished the course, and kept the faith, And wait the sure re - ward. And keep, And to his hea - venly king - dom keep This fee - ble soul of mine. And

B. slow, Nor my sal - va - tion come? Why do my min - utes move so slow, Nor my sal - va - tion come. Why faith, And wait the sure re - ward. Fin - ished the course, and kept the faith, And wait the sure re - ward. Fin - keep This fee - ble soul of mine. And to his hea - venly king - dom keep the faith, And wait the sure re - ward. And