

Oxford. C.M.

Benjamin Beddome, 1787.

Samuel Holyoke, 1791.

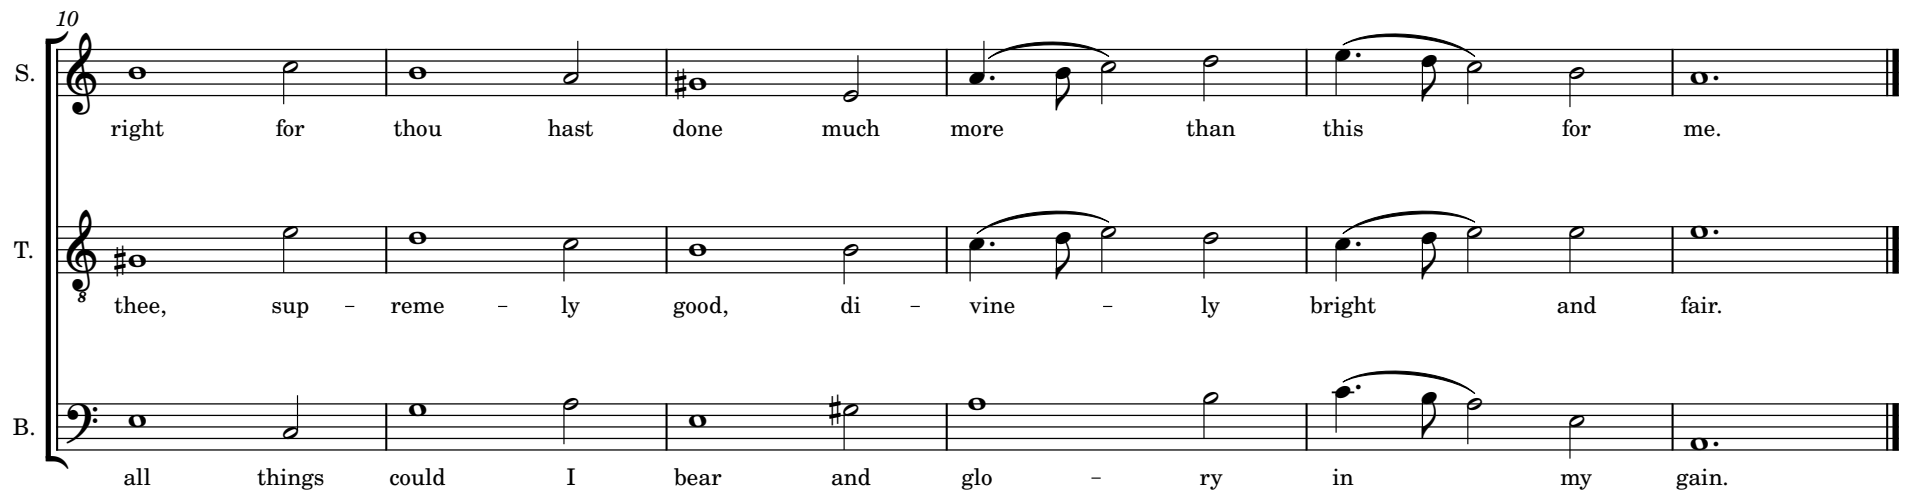

1. And must I part with all I have, my dear - est lord for thee? It is but

2. Ten thou - sand worlds, ten thou - sand lives, how worth - less they ap - pear, com - pared with

3. Sa - vior of souls, could I from thee a sin - gle smile ob - tain, The loss of

10

S. right for thou hast done much more than this for me.

T. thee, sup - reme - ly good, di - vine - ly bright and fair.

B. all things could I bear and glo - ry in my gain.