1. A - way with gloom, a - way with doubt, with
2. A - way with death, and wel - come life; in 3. Then wel - come beau - ty, he is fair; and all the morn - ing stars we sing; with all the sons of him we died and live a - gain: and wel - come peace, a - wel - come youth, for he is young; and wel - come spring; and God we shout the prais - es of a King, Al - le - way with strife, for he re - turns to reign. ev - 'ry - where let mer - ry songs be sung, lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, of our re - turn - ing King.

the Cru - ci - fied shall reign.
for such a King be sung.
