W. D. Maclagan
(1826-1910)

1. Palms of glo - ry, rai - ment bright, crowns that nev - er
2. Yet the con - qu'rors bring their palms to the Lamb a -
3. Kings for harps their crowns re - sign, cry - ing, as they
4. Round the al - tar priests con - fess, if their robes are
5. They were mor - tal too like us: O, when we like fade a - way, gird and deck the saints in light:

midst the throne, and pro - claim in joy - ful psalms
strike the chords, "Take the king - dom, it is thine, white as snow, 'twas the Sa - viour's right - eous - ness,
them must die, may our souls trans - la - ted thus priests and kings and con-qu'rors they.

vic - t'ry through his Cross a - lone.
King of kings and Lord of lords."
and his blood, that made them so.
tri - umph, reign, and shine on high.
