

Tell me the old, old story

Katherine Hankey (1834 - 1911)

The Old, Old Story
Francis Duckworth (1862 - 1941)

SOPRANO
ALTO

1. Tell me the old, old sto - ry
 2. Tell me the sto - - ry simp - ly,
 3. Tell me the sto - - ry slow - ly,
 4. Tell me the sto - - ry oft - en,
 5. Tell me the sto - - ry soft - ly,
 6. Tell me the sto - - ry al - ways,
 7. Tell me the same old sto - ry
 8. Yes, and, when that world's glo - ry

TENOR
BASS

4

S.
A.

Of un - seen things a - bove,
 As to a lit - tle child;
 That I may take it in,
 For I for - get so soon;
 With earn - est tones and grave;
 If you would reall - ly be
 When you have cause to fear
 Shall dawn up - on my soul,

T.
B.

7

S.
A.

Of Je - sus and his glo - ry,
 For I am weak and wear - y,
 That won - der - ful re - demp - tion,
 The ear - ly dew of morn - ing
 Re - mem - ber, I'm the sin - ner,
 In an - y time of trou - ble
 That this world's emp - ty glo - ry
 Tell me the old, old sto - ry,

T.
B.

10

S.
A.

Of Je - sus and His love.
 And help - less, and de - filed.
 God's re - me - dy from sin.
 Has passed a - way at noon.
 Whom Je - sus came to save.
 A com - fort - er to me.
 Is cost - ing me too dear.
 Christ Je - sus makes thee whole.

T.
B.