Great God, forgive our feeble lays, Sound out thine own eternal praise: A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the sky.

A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the sky.

A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the sky.

Great God, forgive our feeble lays, Sound out thine own eternal praise: A song so vast, a theme so high, Calls for the voice that tuned the sky.
