

AMNS 62 Ride on triumphantly! Behold, we lay

Melody: Farley Castle

Adapted from Jeremy Taylor (1613-1667)

Melody and bass by Henry Lawes (1596-1662)

1. Ride on tri - um-phantly! Be - hold, we lay our lusts and 2. Ho - san - na! Wel-come to our hearts! for here thou hast a sins and proud wills in thy way: thy road is read - y, and thy tem - ple too, as Si - on dear: en - ter, O Lord, and cleanse that paths made straight with long-ing ex - pec - ta - tion seem to wait.

ho - ly place where thou dost choose to set thy beau-teous face.