

Psalm 20

Trust in the Name of the Lord Our God

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

Holy Bible ESV

William Ellison

The musical score is arranged in four systems, each corresponding to a different instrument or voice part. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into four measures, numbered 1 through 4 at the top.

- Voice: The first system shows a grand staff (treble and bass clef) with a whole rest in both staves for each of the four measures.
- Violin: The second system shows a single treble staff with a half note in the first measure, followed by a half note in the second, third, and fourth measures, all tied together with a long slur.
- Flute: The third system shows a single treble staff with a quarter rest in the first measure, followed by a quarter note in the second, third, and fourth measures, all tied together with a long slur.
- Piano: The fourth system shows a grand staff. The treble staff has a half note in the first measure, followed by a half note in the second, third, and fourth measures, all tied together with a long slur. The bass staff has a quarter rest in the first measure, followed by a quarter note in the second, third, and fourth measures, all tied together with a long slur.
