

AMNS 302 Soldiers, who are Christ's below

Melody: Orientis Partibus

Latin, 18th cent.,
tr. J. H. Clark (1839-1888)

Version in AMR

Office of P. de Corbeil
(d. 1222)

1. Sol-diers, who are Christ's be-low, strong in faith re-
2. 'Tis no palm of fa-ding leaves that the con-quer'r's
3. For the souls that o-ver-come waits the beau-teous
4. Pass-ing soon and lit-tle worth are the things that
5. Fa-ther, who the crown dost give, Sa-viour, by whose sist the foe: bound-less is the pledged re-ward

hand re-ceives; joys are his, se-rene and pure, heav'n-ly home, where the bless-ed ev-er-more tempt on earth; heav'n-ward lift thy soul's re-gard:
death we live, Spi-rit, who our hearts dost raise,

un-to them who serve the Lord.
light that ev-er shall en-dure.
tread on high the star-ry floor.
God him-self is thy re-ward.
Three in One, thy name we praise.