

Isaac Watts, 1719 (Psalm 130)
86. 86. 86. 86. (C.M.D.)

Fidelity

No copyright. Transcribed from The American Singing-Book, 1786.

A Major
Daniel Read, 1785

1. I wait for Thy sal - vation, Lord, with strong desires I wait; My soul, in - vi - ted by Thy word, stands watching at the gate.

2. Then in the Lord let Israel trust, Let Israel seek His face; The Lord is good as well as just, And plen - teous is His grace.

1. So waits my soul to see Thy grace, with great in - ten - si - ty, Meets the first openings of Thy
2. There's full redemption at His throne for sin - ners long en - slaved: The great re - deem - er is His

1. Meets the first openings of Thy face,
2. The great re - deem - er is His Son,

1. Meets the first openings of Thy face, Meets the first
2. The great re - deem - er is His Son, The great re -

25 30

Tr.
 1. openings, meets the first openings of Thy face, And finds a brighter day, and finds a brighter day.
 2. - deemer, the great redeemer is His Son, And Is - rael shall be saved, and Is - rael shall be saved.

C.
 1. face, meets the first openings of Thy face, And finds a brighter day, and finds a brighter day.
 2. Son, the great re - deem - er is His Son, And Is - rael shall be saved, and Is - rael shall be saved.

T.
 1. Meets the first open - ings of Thy face, And finds a brighter day -----, and finds a brighter day.
 2. The great re - deem - er is His Son, And Is - rael shall be saved -----, and Is - rael shall be saved.

B.
 1. openings, meets the first openings of Thy face, And finds a brighter day, and finds a brighter day.
 2. - deemer, the great redeemer is His Son, And Is - rael shall be saved, and Is - rael shall be saved.