

Stranger, Where Is Your Home?

for Diane Lee

Appalachian hymn-ballad
Additional texts: Crys Armbrust

Traditional
arr. Crys Armbrust

Moderato ♩ = 90

Stran - ger, where is your home? Are you a Stran - ger, why do you moan? Has your tra - Stran - ger, how sad your song. How shall this 5 lone - some and trav - el - ler thru this bourne? Tell us, where vail - some and bur - den, sir, been so long? Tell us, where veil of know - ing serve bet - ter zone? Tell us, where 10 is is your your home? home? I am a poor is is your your home? home? I know dark clouds is is your your home? home? I'll soon be free

15 way - far - ing stran - ger; Trav - el - ling thru this world of will ho - ver o'er me. This I know my path is rough and from eve - ry tri - al. This form shall rest be - neath the

[Copyright]

20

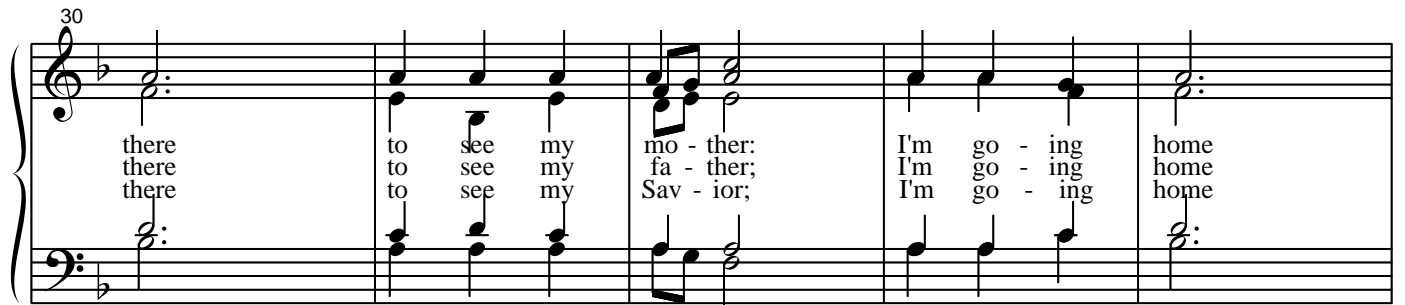

woe. steep. sod. There is no sick ness, toil, nor dan - ger, But gold - en the fields cross lie out be - fore me I'll drop the cross of self de - ni - al.

25

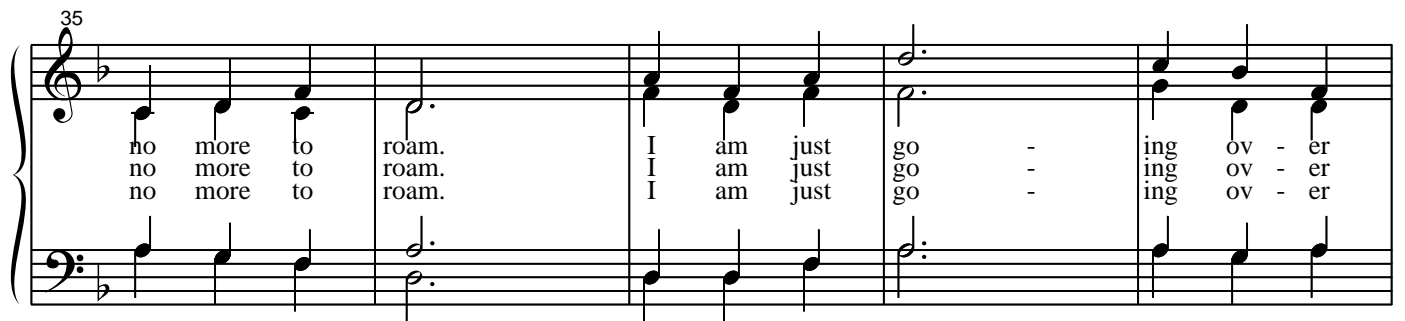

In that fair land to which I go. I'm go - ing
Where wea - ry eyes, will no more weep. I'm go - ing
Then en - ter in that home with God. I'm go - ing

30

there there there to see my mo - ther: I'm go - ing home to see my fa - ther; I'm go - ing home to see my Sav - ior; I'm go - ing home

35

no more to roam. I am just go - ing ov - er no more to roam. I am just go - ing ov - er no more to roam. I am just go - ing ov - er

40

Jor - dan; I am just go - ing ov - er home.
 Jor - dan; I am just go - ing ov - er home.
 Jor - dan; I am just go - ing ov - er home.

45

We'll go there, too, my friend, to be with God, when all of our work is through and done.

50