

Bridge Town

Tr. 5 10 15

1. Grace! 'tis a charming sound! Harmonious to the ear!
2. Grace first contrived a way To save rebellious man,
3. Grace taught my wand'ring feet To tread the heav'nly road;
4. Grace all the work shall crown, Through everlasting days;

Heaven with the echo shall resound, And all the earth shall hear, And all the earth shall hear.
And all the steps that grace display, Which drew the wondrous plan, Which drew the wondrous plan.
And new supplies each hour I meet While pressing on to God, While pres - sing on to God.
It lays in heav'n the topmost stone And well deserves the praise, And well deserves the praise.

A.

1. Grace! 'tis a charming sound! Harmonious to the ear!
2. Grace first contrived a way To save rebellious man,
3. Grace taught my wand'ring feet To tread the heav'nly road;
4. Grace all the work shall crown, Through everlasting days;

And all the earth shall hear, And all the earth shall hear.
Which drew the wondrous plan, Which drew the wondrous plan.
While pressing on to God, While pres - sing on to God.
And well deserves the praise, And well deserves the praise.

T.

1. Grace! 'tis a charming sound! Harmonious to the ear!
2. Grace first contrived a way To save rebellious man,
3. Grace taught my wand'ring feet To tread the heav'nly road;
4. Grace all the work shall crown, Through everlasting days;

Heaven with the echo shall resound, _____ And all the earth shall hear, And all the earth shall hear.
And all the steps that grace display, _____ Which drew the wondrous plan, Which drew the wondrous plan.
And new supplies each hour I meet _____ While pressing on to God, While pres - sing on to God.
It lays in heav'n the topmost stone _____ And well deserves the praise, And well deserves the praise.

B.

1. Heaven with the echo shall resound, _____
2. And all the steps that grace display, _____
3. And new supplies each hour I meet _____
4. It lays in heaven the topmost stone _____

Re-arranged by William Walker in Southern and Western Pocket Harmonist, 1846, and by William Hauser in The Hesperian Harp in 1848.