

China

Transcribed from The Union Harmony, 1793.

Tr. 1. Na - ture, with all her powers, shall sing God the Cre - a - tor and the
2. Be - gin to make his glo - ries known, Ye se - raphs that sit near his

C. 3. All mor - tal things of mea - ner frame, Ex - ert your force, and own his

T. 4. To him be sa - cred all we have, From the young cra - dle to the
5. Raise mo - nu - men - tal prai - ses high To him that thun - ders through the

B.

Tr. King; Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas, De - ny the tri - bute throne; Tune your harps high, and spread the sound To the cre - a - tion's

C. name; While with our souls and with our voice We sing his hon - ors

T. grave; Our lips shall his loud won - ders tell, And eve - ry word a sky, And with an aw - ful nod or frown Shakes an a - spi - ring

B.

Tr. of their praise. Nor ut - most bound. Tune

C. and our joys. While

T. mi - ra - cle. Our ty - rant down. And

B.