

Isaac Watts, 1719, altered
(Psalm 81)

66. 86. (S. M.)

Medford

Transcribed from Province Harmony, 1809.

C Major

Hezekiah Moors, 1809

Tr. 5 10

1. Sing to the Lord aloud, And make a joyful noise; God is our strength, our Savior God; Let Israel hear his voice. God is our strength, our Savior God; Let Israel hear his voice.

C. 2. From vile i-do-la-try Preserve his worship clean; He is the Lord who sets us free From sla-ve-ry and sin. He is the Lord, who sets us free From sla-ve-ry and sin.

T. 3. Yet O! that all his saints Would hearken to his voice! Soon he would ease their sore complaints, And bid their hearts rejoice. Soon he would ease their sore complaints, And bid their hearts rejoice.

B. 8 4. While he destroys our foes, He'll richly feed his flock; And we will taste the stream that flows From our e-ter-nal rock. And we will taste the stream that flows From our e-ter-nal rock.