

O Lord of heaven and earth and sea

Christopher Wordsworth
(1807-85)

John Bacchus Dykes
(1823-76)

Almsgiving (88. 84)

1. O Lord of heaven and earth and sea, To Thee all
2. The golden sun-shine, vernal air, Sweet flowers and
3. For peaceful homes and health-ful days, For all the
4. Thou didst not spare Thine on-ly Son, But gav'st Him
5. Thou giv'st the Spi-rit's bless-ed dower, Spi-rit of 6. For souls re-deemed, for sins for-given, For means of praise and glo-ry be; How shall we show our fruits Thy love de-clare; Where har-vests ri-pen, bless-ings earth dis-plays, We owe Thee thank-ful-for a world un-done, And free-ly with that life and love and power, And dost His seven-fold grace and hopes of heaven, Fa-ther, all praise to love to Thee, Who giv-est all?

Thou art there, Who giv-est all.
ness and praise, Who giv-est all.
bless-ed One Thou giv-est all.
gra-ces shower U-pon us all.
Thee be given, Who giv-est all.