

Four-part round:

Canby Singers Round

John Hetland
January, 2002

1. Oh the Can-by Singers can be sing - - gu - lar - ly on the ball; If they

2.

3. stu-dy hard with vo-ca - li - zing, they can do it all. Yes!

4.

The musical score is written in 3/2 time. It consists of four numbered parts. Part 1 starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody for Part 1 is: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), Bb4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), G4 (quarter), F4 (half). Part 2 continues the melody: E4 (half), D4 (half). Part 3 continues: C4 (half), Bb3 (half). Part 4 continues: A3 (half), G3 (half), F3 (half), E3 (half), D3 (half), C3 (half). The lyrics are: "Oh the Can-by Singers can be sing - - gu - lar - ly on the ball; If they stu-dy hard with vo-ca - li - zing, they can do it all. Yes!".

The first line of music is the border decoration at www.geocities.com/CANBY\_SINGERS