Tr. 1. God in the great as - sem - bly stands Where his impartial eye In state sur - veys the earth - ly gods, And does their judg - ments try.
2. How dare you then un - just - ly judge, Or be to sin - ners kind? De - fend the or - phans and the poor, Let such your jus - tice find.

C. 3. Protect the hum - ble help - less man, Reduced to deep distress, And let not him be - come a prey To such as would op - press.
4. They neither know, nor will they learn, But blindly rove and stray; Jus - tice and truth, the world's great props, Through all the land de - cay.

T. 5. But ne'er - the - less your un - just deeds To strict account I'll call; You all shall die like com - mon men, Like o - ther ty - rants fall.
6. Arise and thy just judgments, Lord, Throughout the earth display; And all the na - tions of the world Shall own thy right - eous sway.
