

O God, our Saviour, all our hearts

Psalm 85
Trans. Nahum Tate (1652 - 1715)
and Nicholas Brady (1659 - 1726)

SUNDRIDGE
Vincent Francis Novello (1781 - 1861)
Ed. Douglas J Walczak (ASCAP)

Slow and plaintive

Soprano
Alto

1. O God our Sa - viour, all our
2. For why should'st thou be an - gry
3. Thy gra - cious fa - vor, Lord, dis -
4. God's an - swer pa - tient - ly I'll

Tenor
Bass

4

S.
A.

hearts to thy o - be - dience turn, That,
still, and wrath so long re - tain? Re - play, which we have long im - plor'd; And wait, for he, with glad suc - cess, If

T.
B.

8

S.
A.

quench'd with our re - pent - ing vive us, Lord, and let thy for thy wond' - rous mer - cies
they no more to fol - ly

T.
B.

11

S.
A.

tears,
saints
sake
turn

Why
thy thy
his wrath_____ won -

won - mourn -

no - ted
ted
ing

more_____
com -
aid_____
saints____

may
- fort
af -
will burn.

gain.
ford.
bless.

T.
B.