

I Was the Boat Man

SSA a cappella

M. Furtak

$\text{♩} = 65$

Soprano

I knew the jack who felled the tree. I knew the

Alto

I knew the jack who felled the 5

S.

man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the tree. I knew the man who milled the wood.

A.

9

S.

boat, and the boat man, and the boat man he was

A.

I knew the wright who built the boat, and the boat man he was 13

S.

me. I knew the

S.

I knew the jack who felled the tree. I knew the

A.

me. I knew the jack who felled the 17

S. man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the

S. man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the

A. tree. I knew the man who milled the wood,

21

S. boat, and the boat man, and the boat man he was me.

S. boat, and the boat man, and the boat man he was me. I knew the

A. and the boat man he was me.

26

S. me. Come raise a glass to men like these.

S. me. I was the man who worked the

A. me. Come raise a glass to men like these.

31

S. Their day is done, they work no more. Long may you

S. boat. I used to sail out from the shore.

A. Their day is done, they work no more. Long may you

36

S. weep for men like these, but

S. Gone are the men who know the tide.

A. weep for men like these, but 41

S. I was a boat man. Yes, I was a boat man, and I weep for the sea. rit.

S. Yes, I was a boat man, and I weep for the sea. rit.

A. I was a boat man. Yes, I was a boat man, and I weep for the sea. rit.