† Bassus, m.31.1: marked with a ✕ sign in G4875 only.

Musical score for orchestra and choir, page 46, measures 1-5. The score consists of six staves. The top three staves are for the orchestra, featuring violins, violas, cellos, double basses, and harps. The bottom three staves are for the choir. The vocal parts are: Alto (A), Tenor (T), Bass (B), and Soprano (S). The vocal parts sing the lyrics "fa-ci-am mi-ser, u-bi fu-gi-am, u-am mi- - - ser, u-bi fu-gi-am, u-bi fu-gi- - - ser, mi- - - ser, u-bi fu-gi-am, u-bi fu- - - ser, mi- - - ser, u-bi fu-gi-am, u-bi fu- - - ser, ci-am mi- - - ser, u-bi fu-gi-am," in a mix of French and Latin words. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one flat. Measure 1 starts with a forte dynamic. Measures 2-3 show a transition with eighth-note patterns. Measures 4-5 return to the original tempo and dynamics.

Hei mihi, Dómine,
quia peccávi nimis in vita mea:
Quid fáciam miser,
ubi fúgiám nisi ad te, Deus meus?
Miserére mei dum véneris in novíssimo die.

*Woe is me, O Lord,
for I have sinned exceedingly in my life:
O wretch, what shall I do?
Whither shall I flee, but unto you, my God?
Have mercy upon me when you come on the last day.*

(Responsory for the Fifth Lesson at Matins for the Dead)

Editorial Notes:

This edition is set a tone lower than the original notated pitch. Editorial accidentals are indicated above the note. The seemingly redundant precautionary D naturals (e.g. Cantus I, m.25.1) are replicated from the original. Original note values are retained: thus, consistent with 16th-century convention, the C mensuration sign and its modern-equivalent C time signature signify a semibreve tactus. Bar lines are added only to aid reading and direction: ‘strong’ and ‘weak’ beats implied by their position should never take precedence over phrasing or word stress. Ligatures and coloration in the source are acknowledged with overarching square brackets and open ‘corner’ brackets respectively. Word underlay is as per the sources, which are both unambiguous and in agreement in that regard. Re-iterated text implied by an ‘ij’ marking in the source is indicated in italic.
