

Unknown Author
First published 1803
88. 88. 88.

Ordination Hymn

No copyright. Transcribed from The Charlestown Collection, 1803.

A Major
Oliver Holden, 1803

Treble

Counter

Tenor

Bass

1. O what a happy, happy day, When ancient saints were heard to say, "To Zion's hill let us repair, To Zion's hill let us repair." With

2. Convened within this temple, Lord, Thy glorious presence now afford, And fill each heart with sacred love, And fill each heart with sacred love: This

3. While now for Zion's peace we pray, O let us hear our Savior say, "Thy prayers are heard, thy choice I own, Thy prayers are heard, thy choice I own." Then

Tr.

C.

T.

B.

1. equal joy our willing feet Approach this consecrated seat, And bow with humble reverence here, And bow with humble reverence here.

2. solemn rite with favor crown, And shed thy promised blessing down, With heavenly influence from above, With heavenly influence from above.

3. shall thy mourning church arise, And vie with all below the skies, In grateful songs before Thy throne, In grateful songs before Thy throne.