

Angel spirits of sleep

From a poem by Robert Bridges (1844 - 1930)

Flowingly Jennifer Bastable

1 $\text{♩} = 72$

Soprano
An — gel spi — rits, spi — rits of sleep, of

Soprano
An — gel spi — rits of sleep. of

Bass
An — gel

4
sleep, an — gel spi — rits of sleep, of sleep, of sleep, spi — rits of sleep, of spi — rits, an — gel spi — rits of 7

white rob'd, with sil — ver hair, sleep. White rob'd, white rob'd In your sleep. White rob'd, white rob'd, with sil — ver hair,

11
Where the wil — lows weep,

mea · dows fair, And the sad moon — beam On the gli — ding

Where the wil — lows weep, the moon — beam on the Provided proper acknowledgement of the composer is made, this music may be fully distributed, duplicated, performed, and recorded.

15

Writes her scat-ter'd dream:
 stream Writes her scat-ter'd dream:
 stream Writes her dream:

19

An-gel spi-rits of sleep. of sleep, of sleep, rits, spi-rits of sleep, of sleep, of An-gel spi-rits, spi-rits,

22

of sleep, of sleep, Dan-cing, dan-cing, sleep, of sleep, of sleep. Dan-cing, dan-cing, rits of sleep, of sleep.

26

dan-cing to the weir In the hol-low roar
 Of its

Of its wa—ters deep; That ye wa—ters deep; Know ye how men say That ye haunt no
The roar of its wa—ters deep; Haunt, haunt no more With your moon—lit play;

more Isle and gras—sy shore haunt no more With your moon—lit, your

That ye dance not here,
With your moon—lit play;
moon—lit play, your moon—lit play; Dance,

Slower That ye dance not here, Slower still that ye dance not here. p rit.
O dance not here.