

How beauteous are their feet

Isaac Watts (1674 - 1748)

Lascelles

Francis Duckworth (1862 - 1941)

SOPRANO
ALTO

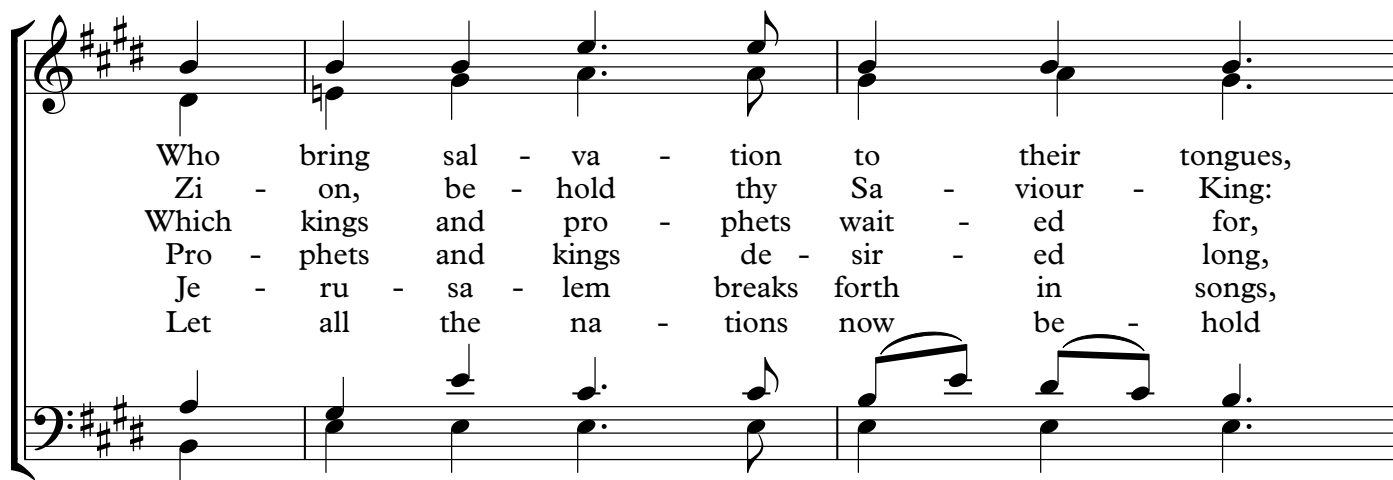

1. How beau - teous are the feet
2. How cheer - ing is their voice,
3. How bless - ed are our ears
4. How bless - ed are our eyes
5. The watch - men join their voice,
6. The Lord makes bare His arm

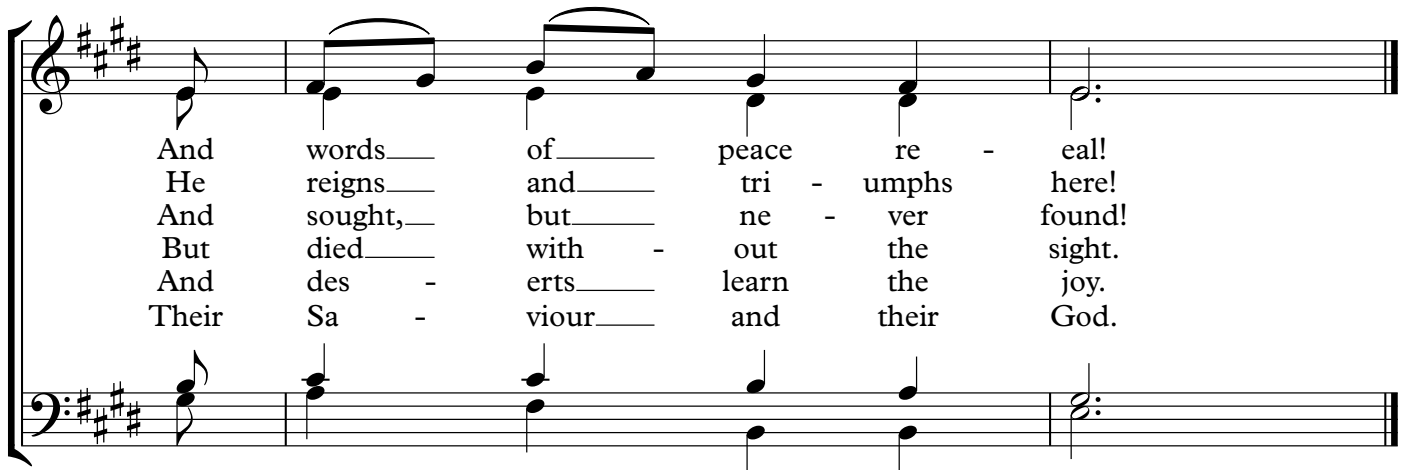

TENOR
BASS

Who stand on Zi - on's hill,
How sweet the ti - dings are!
That hear this joy - ful sound,
That see this heav'n - ly light!
And tune - ful notes em - ply:
Through all the earth a - broad:

Who bring sal - va - tion to their tongues,
Zi - on, be - hold thy Sa - viour - King:
Which kings and pro - phets wait - ed for,
Pro - phets and kings de - sir - ed long,
Je - ru - sa - lem breaks forth in songs,
Let all the na - tions now be - hold

And words of peace re - eal!
He reigns and tri - umphs here!
And sought, but ne - ver found!
But died with - out the sight.
And des - erts learn the joy.
Their Sa - viour and their God.