

I Will Go, If My Father Holds My Hand

87. 87. D.
Charles A. Tindley, 1907

Transcribed from Soul Echoes, 1909.

D Major
Charles A. Tindley, 1907

1. When the path - way of du - ty seems with dan - ger fill'd,
2. If my Fath - er holds my hand I can keep the nar - row way,
3. Tho' my strength is weak, by his grace I will seek
4. When in the vale of sor - row I am call'd to go,
5. When the aw - ful waves of Jor - dan beat up - on my soul,

4. And the charms of world - ly beau - ty al - most win my fee - ble will,
If my Fath - er holds my hand, I can nev - er go a - stray,
To re - pose like Ma - ry at the Sav - ior's feet;
And it seems each to - mor - row simp - ly brings a - noth - er woe,
In the i - cy hands of death my limbs are grow - ing cold,

7. While I see the cross up - lift - ed, and can hear the King's com - mand,
Tho' oft it is so dark and I can hard - ly find the way,
Then to climb to the heights of pure de - light,
I am sat - is - fied to fol - low where He leads, this I know,
I have no - thing then to fear if my Lord is near,

10. Chorus
I will go, if my Fa - ther holds my hand. (holds my hand) I will go, I will
I will go,

go, I will go, tho' the mount-ains are high and the val-leys low, I will go, I will go, I will go, I will go, if my Fath-er holds my hand. (holds my hand)

19

I will go,
