Tr.  5

1. Let eve-ry creature join To praise th'e-ter-nal God;      Ye heav'nly hosts, the song begin, And
 2. He built those worlds above, And fixed their wondrous frame;      By his command they stand or move, And
 3. By all the earth-born race His honors be expressed;      But saints, that know his heav'nly grace Should
 4. U-ni-ted zeal be shown His wondrous fame to raise:      God is the Lord; his name a-lone De-

Tr.  15

1. Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames, Shine to your Ma-ker's
 2. Ye thunders, murmuring round the skies, His power and glory
 3. Judges, adore that sovereign hand Whence all your ho-nors
 4. But saints that dwell so near his heart, Should sing his praises

C.  20

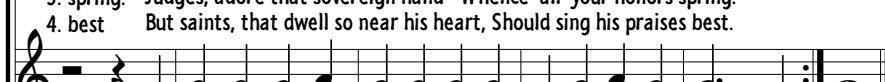

1. sound his name a-broad. Thou sun with gol-den beams, And moon with paler rays;
 2. ev-er speak his name. Ye va-pors, when ye rise, Or fall in showers of snow;
 3. learn to praise him best. Mo-narchs of wide command, Praise ye th'e-ter-nal King;
 4. -serves our end-less praise. Let na-ture join with art, And all pronounce him blest;
